Editor

We your yearbook editors, proudly present the 1961 SENATOR.

We trust that it will bring you many pleasant memories in years to come and that you will enjoy looking over its pages as much as we have enjoyed planning them for you.

Administration

ALTON WILLIAMS
Principal

I think young people are refreshing. I like them. Young people make a school what it is, and I like the attitude you have shaped up at Joe T. and I appreciate the re-education you have given me in youthful attitudes and spirits.

J. S. SCHRADER
Assistant Principal

STUDENTS:

This is dedicated to you and for you as the future citizens of our country. I am pleased to say that I have enjoyed this year at Joe T. more than I have any other year or school. There is definitely a quality of students here that are not found anywhere else. I am proud to be able to say I was part of your education, and I like to think that I may have been of help to you. May God grant you the richest blessing and his protection for eternity.

Dedication

MRS. ALBERTA SELLERS

MR. DOUG BELOTE

The SENATOR editors have asked the senior class to vote on the person or persons to whom we should like to dedicate this 1961 yearbook. We have selected our class sponsors, Mrs. Sellers and Mr. Belote, for this honor because of our close association with them. They will use hours of their own time to help us with the ordering of graduation invitations, personal cards, with our rings, with our cap and gown orders. They will help us plan our graduation exercises and will train a tenth and eleventh grade choir to sing for graduation.

To Mrs. Sellers we wish to express our appreciation for her being a wonderful English and journalism teacher. In addition to her six periods of teaching, she sponsors the SENATOR; and being the journalism instructor, she sponsors the TOPHATTER, our school paper. She is also the director of our senior play. Yet, with all her busy schedule, she takes time to have conferences with each of us, giving us special help with our school work and listening to our personal problems. We feel we are better persons for having known her and having had her for a teacher. Her dedication to her work and her devotion to us have been an inspiration to us to be scholars and to be better men and women.

To Mr. Belote we wish to express our appreciation for his being a truly good government and geography teacher. His well planned field trips have added much to our general understanding of the subjects he teaches. His inspirational work as co-sponsor of the Student Council takes many hours of his time outside of school hours as does his work in the school concession stand. He always has a friendly, interested manner when we go to him for advice. As a teacher and a sponsor he rates "tops." We will remember his logic in years to come when we have important decisions to make. His keen sense of humor has helped to make many dull days bright. We will always remember him.

Our superintendents, our principals, and our teachers are an important part of our lives. They have done much to help us to develop into good citizens. Because of our many years of close association their philosophy of life has become to a degree our philosophy. As we have learned from them so also they have learned from us. Our ideals have become so similar because we know our teachers, will always be an important part of our lives, and we know we are an important part of their lives.

To be a member of royalty, a student must be a senior with good scholastic standing and must have good attitudes. The boy and girl receiving the majority vote of the senior class became the king and queen. The three boys and girls receiving the next highest number of votes were named princes and princesses.

Being a senior is like a dream come true. When we first heard we didn't feel any different than we had in other years. Then when we had our cap and gown pictures made, we suddenly became conscious of our standing as seniors.

It is a little frightening as well as extremely pleasant to realize that we have actually reached the goal we have been working toward for eleven long years.

Ordering graduation announcements and caps and gowns made us even more conscious of our standing as the top ranking students in school. Realizing all the younger students are watching us, we have tried to be good examples for them to follow.

One of the greatest lessons this year has taught us is that along with extra privileges there are extra responsibilities. We have been proud of senior classes in other years, and wanting to carry on Reynolds' tradition of the seniors' being older brothers and sisters to the younger students, we have tried to make our footprints plain ones for those who follow us.

Being juniors this year has been an exciting, satisfying experience. For many years we have looked forward to reaching this exalted position of being "in on" the junior-senior banquet. To our surprise there have also been many hours of hard work along with the fun of being a junior.

We have learned also that we have more and more new responsibilities as we advance. Most of us are studying more than we ever have before. Along with the advanced mathematics and science courses has come a greater awareness of the great scientific discoveries of our generation. History and literature are "opening up" to us the feeling that we have grown out of childhood into young adulthood. Our commercial courses together with home economics and industrial arts this year have helped us to feel a little more sure of ourselves.

Altogether it seems this year has helped us to grow up 'too fast. However, it has been a year we will always treasure.

The change from Elementary School to Junior High School has been exciting and was a little bit scary at first. When we started this year as seventh graders we were afraid we would get into a class where we would not know anyone. Being used to one teacher in the other grades, we wondered how we could learn to know a teacher for each subject. We got lost trying to find our class rooms. Then the subjects were much harder, so we were confused in general, until we got used to the change. But one of the really nice things about being in Junior High is the closer association with older students. We watch how they do things and we try to be like them. It's fun!

Robinson School, 35 Years, Old

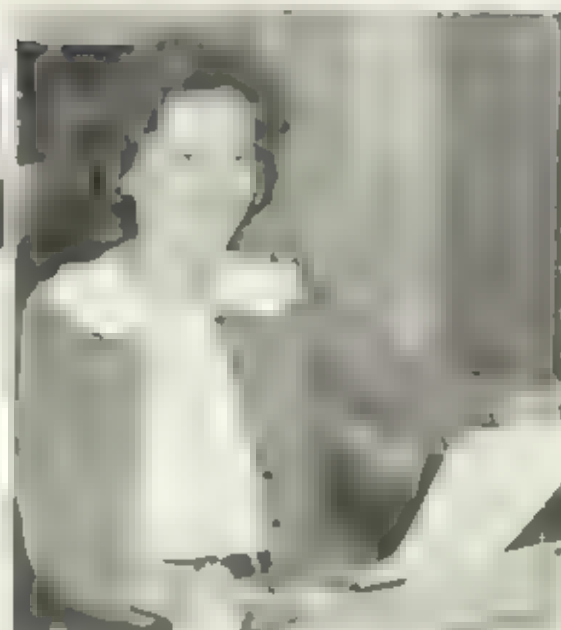

In the early 1920's a small group of people from southwest Pulaski County felt keenly the need for a high school for the young people of their community. With this common goal in view, Owen Township Special School District was formed of seven schools: Fletcher Springs, Marmade, Brown, Lee, North Point, Pinnacle, and Spring Valley, who consolidated to build a centrally located school, which would serve both elementary and high school. With the understanding that the school was to be named in honor of Senator Joe T. Robinson, Mr. Gas Park donated the land. In September 1926, the institution began its first year. The five students of the first senior class graduated in 1929. Since then many hundreds have graduated from this school.

Among the 1961 graduates are thirteen students who have been in Robinson school for all twelve of their school years. They are Marie Oglesby, Shirley Ryles, Lawrence Marshall, Jessie Cook, John Thorpe, Shirley Johnson, Marilyn Nowlin, Sue Newton, Tommy Martindale, Eddie Hoffman, David White, Sonny Newton, and Virginia Walls. Sharon Stacks and Margie Daniel have been at Joe T. eleven years.

Billy Weir and Johnny Dorsey work hard as hall monitors. They have served over a hundred hours each this year.

Mr. Schrader,

I can truthfully say I think you are the best and the tops in everything. The students can come to you and expect to get a fair shake. You'll never know how much we have appreciated you here at Joe T. and we were real proud of you at the basketball games. It was really a good feeling to know the assistant principal was interested in our teams. May God Bless your family and you to the utmost and may the best of everything always be yours.

One of your greatest admirers
and a true friend,
Maxwell Bennett
